

BADLANDS COMMUNITY FACILITY Bookings and Customer Service

MUSIC LICENSES

All businesses are legally required to pay a licensing fee when broadcasting music or playing recorded music in public. Music licenses allow businesses to use music in public for customers legally, ethically and responsibly. Songwriters, composers, record companies, music publishers and performing artists have rights under the Copyright Act to be compensated for the use of their music, this is covered by the music licenses such as SOCAN and Re:Sound.

SOCAN & RE: SOUND LICENSING FEES

All events that use recorded music or live entertainment (i.e. disc jockey or bands) by law, must remit the following fees. The Badlands Community Facility charges the appropriate SOCAN and Re:Sound fees for all applicable events and remits payments to SOCAN and Re:Sound directly.

SOCAN (Society of Composers, Authors and Music Publishers of Canada) is an organization which, under the Copyright Act of Canada (R.S.C.555.1), is authorized to collect fees for the public performance of music in Canada. SOCAN distributes the money collected to Copyright owners in the form of a royalty. Under Tariff No. 8, customers are required by federal law to pay a performing rights licence fee.

Re:Sound is the Canadian not-for-profit music licensing company dedicated to obtaining fair compensation for artists and recording companies for their performance rights. The Copyright Board of Canada certifies the tariff to be paid by users of sound recordings in Canada under Re: Sound's Live Events Tariff, which apply to the use of recorded music accompanying live events such as weddings, karaoke, conventions, ice shows, and fairs. Under Tariff 5.B, customers are required by federal law to pay for using recorded music at their events.

Re:Sound administers the performance rights of performing artists and record companies in the sound recording. SOCAN administers the performance rights of the composers, authors and their music publishers in the musical work/song.
